ATHENAEUM—1979

Barringer High School

Newark, New Jersey

Everybody has said at one time or another, "I just want to be ME . .

The Mysterious Elements that make you who, and what, and where, and when you are.

The only way you can begin

Be true to yourself first

to solve the mystery of your existence.

Why is there anything? Why you? Why me? Why anybody or anything at this time? The truth about purpose.

There is a divine plan for such a great creation; We are the crown of creation.

It is time for as a unit of creation, to assume the responsibility and character we so naturally desire.

Most of all progress of all things that are righteous and true.

We are part of the Creator, and everywhere we go . . . there we are.

ALMA MATER

Over many a city old, famed in song and story
Temple grey and castle hold catch the sunset glory.
So our Alma Mater proud looks o'er vale and meadow
High between the sailing cloud and its drifting shadows.
For her colors, first the blue of the April valley's
Then December's wintry here when the storm winds rally.
Barringer, the fame we raise, many voice blending;
Through the years we pledge the praise loyal to life's ending.

The Year of Disco

HOWARD JARVIS

BEST

Bread and Chocolate. The flavor is bittersweet, but there is much nourishing comedy in this poignant story of an Italian immigrant seeking his fortune in chilly Switzerland. A caustic criticism of two national temperaments.

Cat and Mouse. A Gallic mystery in which the detective falls in love with the main suspect. Director Claude Lelouch demonstrates his customary flair for textures (of meals, French countryside, character) in one of the year's few adult entertainments.

Days of Heaven. An apocalyptic parable about loneliness and injustice in Texas on the eve of World War I, beautifully done by Terrence Malick.

Get Out Your Handkerchiefs. French Director Bertrand Blier (Going Places) pushes sexual fantasy well past the Heaven Can Wait. In this remake of Here Comes Mr. Jordan, Warren Beatty and true love triumph over death.

Movie Movie. The best parody yet of those old movie styles.

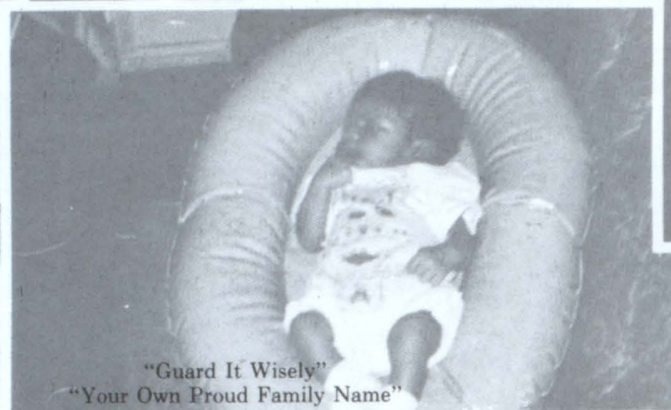

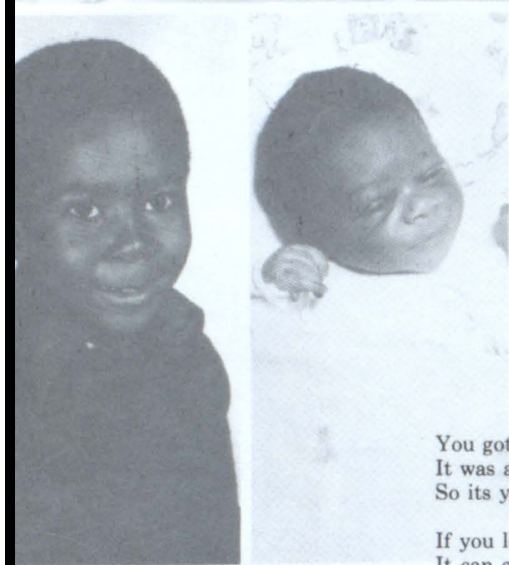

National Lampoon's Animal House. A hilarious hit-or-mess farce that unabashedly proclaims the primacy of sex and gluttony in campus life.

Summer Paradise. As four generations of a Swedish family gather for a holiday, Director Gunnel Lindblom probes the forces that threaten the family as an institution.

The Deer Hunter. The first film that tries to describe all the contradictions of American involvement in Viet Nam.

Watership Down. A return to the classic visual values in

"Guard It Wisely"
"Your Own Proud Family Name"

You got it from your Father
It was all he had to Give
So its yours to use and cherish, for as long as you may live.

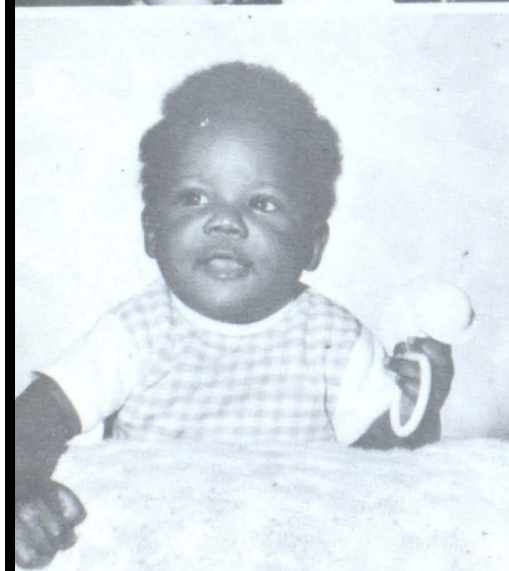

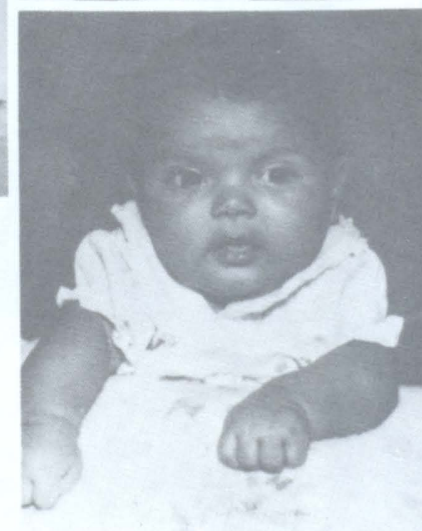

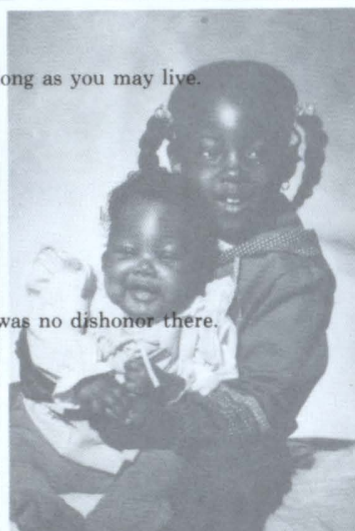

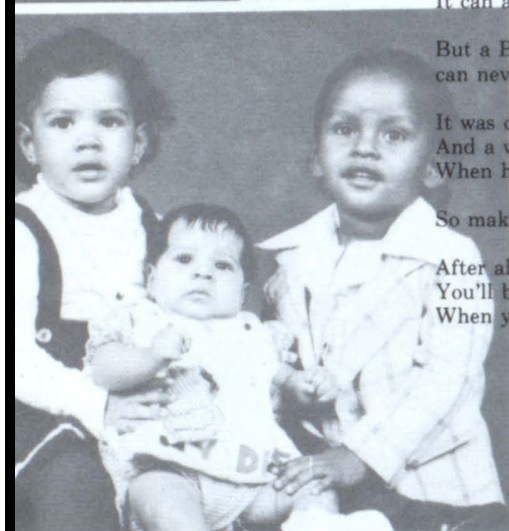

If you lose the watch he gave You
It can always be replaced.

But a Black Mark on your name Son
can never be erased.

It was clean the day you got it
And a worthy name to Bear
When he got it from his Father, there was no dishonor there.

So make sure you Guard it wisely

After all is said and done
You'll be glad the name is Spotless
When you give it to your "SON".

UNTOLD SUBJECT

What is it, this thing we feed on everyday, it fills our beack and our souls, yet it can turn on us and starve us.

It could make us dance, make us sing, make us happier than every before.

One day it could make us cry and want to go away and hide.

Its as universal as a smile, it happens country in, country out, to people of different races, its the kindest and cruelest thing there is to be talked about.

Its the thing that makes this world able to move about. Of the beautiful up and downs of love is what this poem is about.

WORK STUDY

Work Study is a program which consists of 42 people head by Mr. Anthony Carrino. The purpose of the program is to provide parttime jobs during the afternoon. Many students work in private industry while others assistant in clerical work at the school.

TO ME.

To be able to breathe five times daily, in an atmosphere of perfect peace in a world of strife and struggle, of equality where inequality is the order of the day, and love amid petty. Jealousy and enmities of daily life; is indeed a blessing, but it is more than a blessing, for it is the great lesson of life.

Inequalities, strife and struggle, hatred and enmity. You are drawn out of these things five times a day, and made to realize that equality, fraternity and love are the real sources of human happiness.

The Gas Line

Straight as an arrow
as the cars go by
The line is way back
and will be long to die
The people are blowing the horns
and waving the hand
Asking is it my turn mister
gasoline man
So they roll up the windows
and pop out the vans
And run down the street with their two gallon can

Straight as an arrow so the cars wont pass
people are on the side lines waiting for gas
As time goes by and it's a quarter to eight
the people are saying "No!, we won't wait"
Then the gas man said in a shout
"Sorry good people were all out!"

A NEWBORN

A little boy was born today, so small, so precious, so peaceful.
Does he realize this strange world, he has entered?
Does his body tingle to be alive?
Whats on his mind as he views all these strange things around him?
Does he wish he could crawl back inside?
Will he find life rough and long?, Will he find where he belongs?

A little boy was born today, he's so beautiful.
We hope he'll want to stay.
Life can be great if he doesn't try to live it in a fast way.

"Darnell, Why is one Breast larger than the other?"

"Fool is you crazy!"

"Don't call on me"

Open your eyes, and look within. And as the years peel off in your mind

Are you satisfied?

Does the next step frighten you?

As we embark

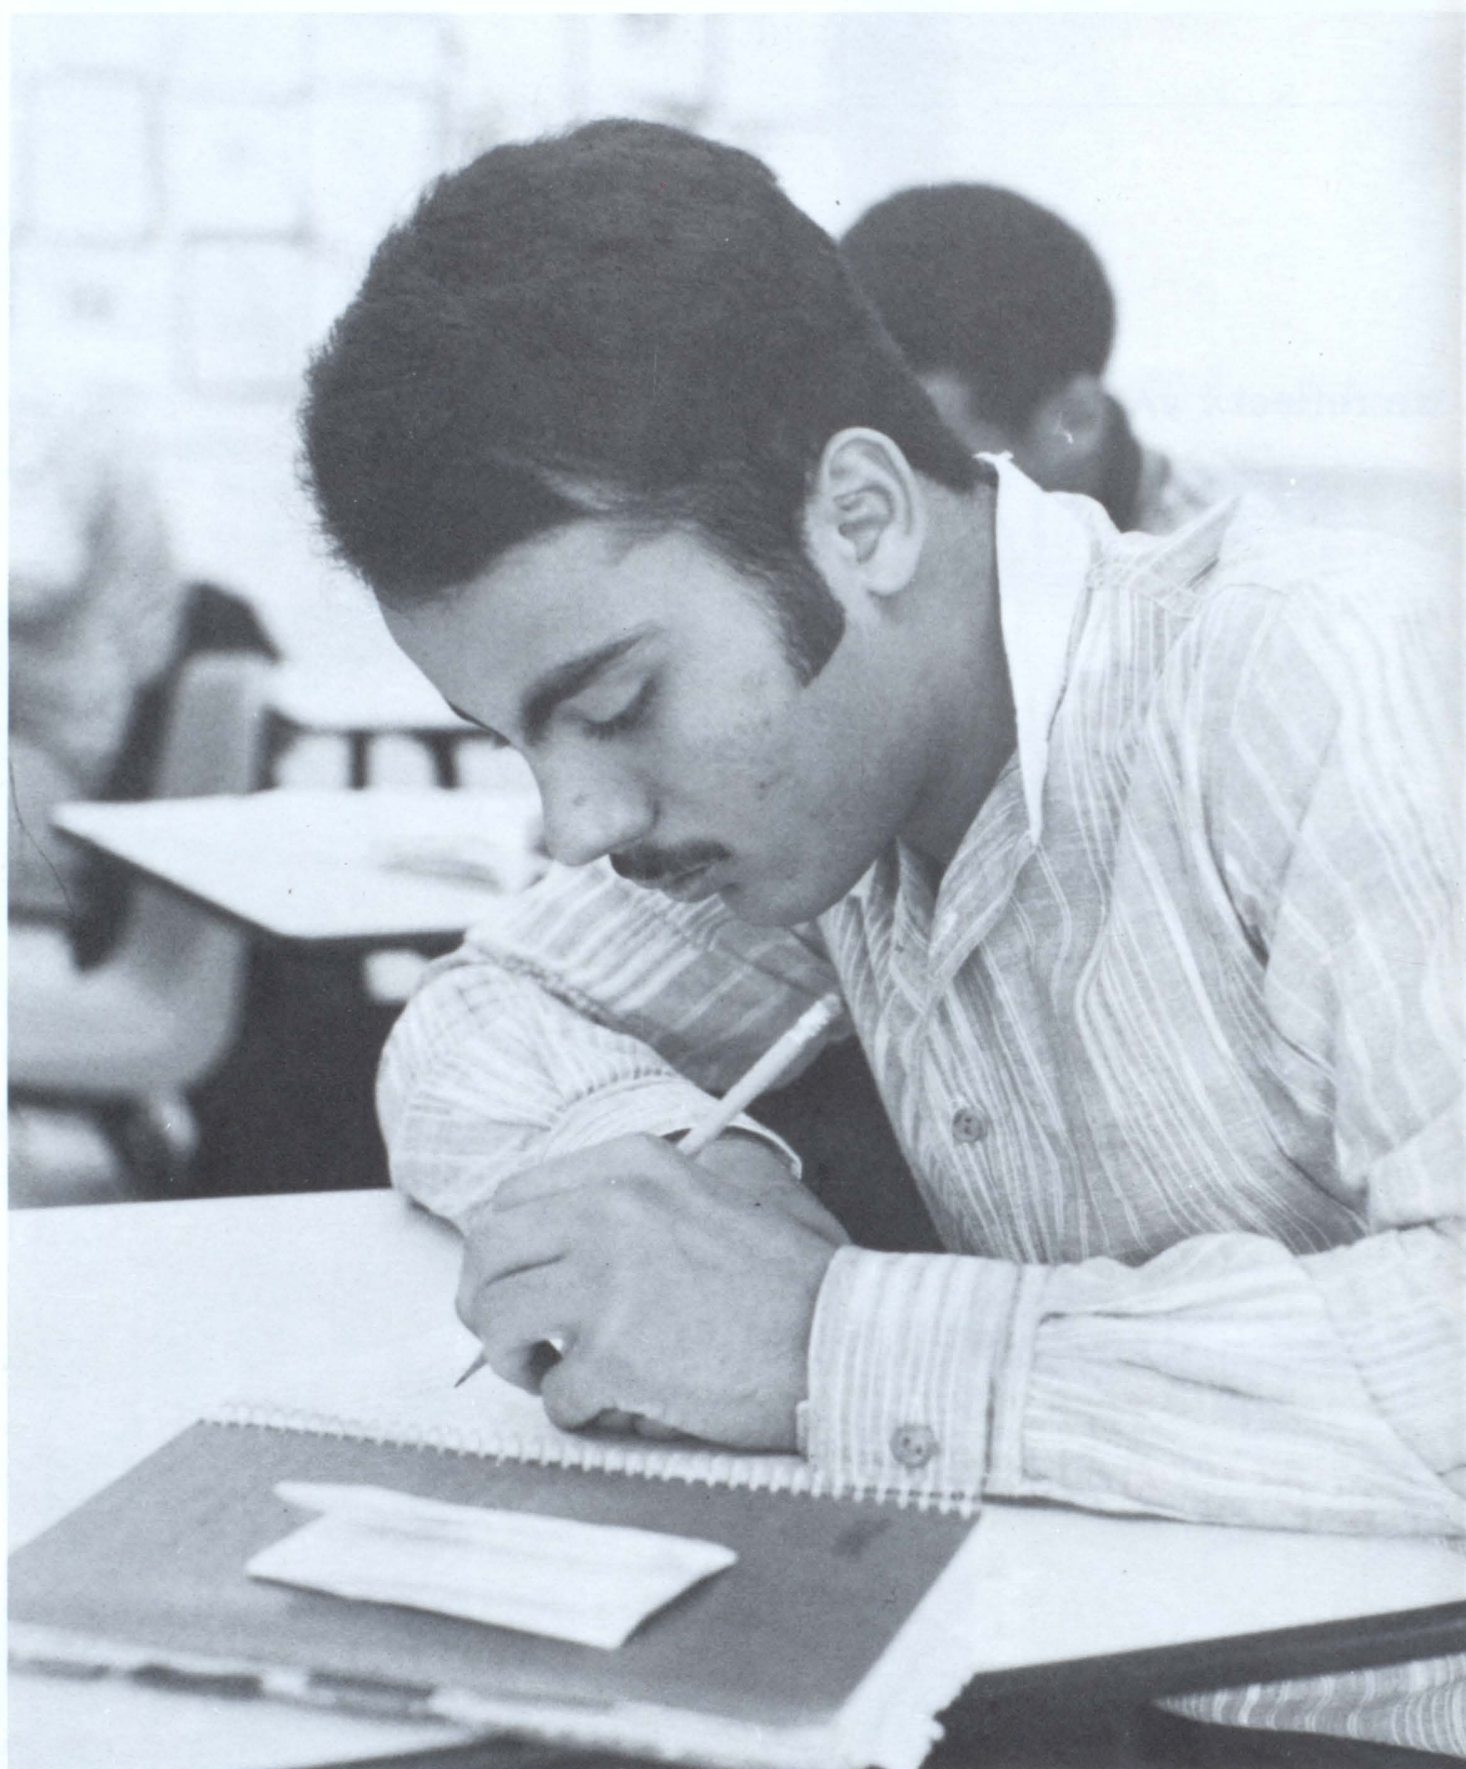

we reflect . . . All the laughs, the tears, the triumphs, the defeats between yesterday and tomorrow.

You are becoming what you are to be.
